FROM THE DIRECTOR

Sixty- one students.

When I reached out to my college theatre professor, an experienced director/producer/writer, etc. I was appalled when he said to me "I would not know what to do with that many students. I'm sorry, I have nothing to offer you." And to imagine that he didn't realize how many of them played basketball this season!

It is with this truth of challenge that I would like to thank God for being so inevitably present with us in this work.

Even with such a large cast, have had a peaceful, collaborative, and supported experience, unlike what many (including myself) presumed it would be like. The students showed great patience during classes and rehearsals, empathy toward one another, and zeal in their roles. Rehearsals seemed to fly by, a few hours feeling like mere minutes. Comfort zones were broken out of and many of the students are on stage in acting roles for their FIRST time ever.

To our faculty, staff, parents, volunteers and sponsors: We could not do this work without your help. Thank you for choosing our growing program and being willing to share your time, resources and talents with us.

To our audiences: I pray that you enjoy your experience with us. It is our desire to be a blessing to you and show the love of God in what we do. May you feel His presence as you join us for this performance. So many hours (even some over winter vacation) have been invested into this work!

To Bonnie, Rusty, Kim, Paul, Sam, Lisa, Kristy, Matthew, and so many others: Thank you for putting up with my wild ideas, my "Director Mode" and being a great team. God blessed me with you!

To my students: I love you all deeply. Remember to always be kind, stay humble, and let God be known through your good works.

*Rise Above,
Carmen Oyola-Callender*
